CYCLONE KATE AT WORK AGAIN.

She Fired Mrs. Corcoran's House and Severely Eurnt the Owner. The alarm from box 34 last night was caused by a fire in the house of

Mrs. Corcoran on Swetland street. Cyclone Kate, who was let out of jail a few days ago, was calling on Mrs. Corcoran yesterday. Much beer was punished by the party and finally a fight started among the women. The Cyclone picked up the lamp from the table and hurled it at Mrs. Corcoran. The latter was severely burned. The lamp also set fire to the house, but the damage was of no consequence.

The police were called by Chief Ferber and Mrs. Boylan was removed to the lockup. A charge of setting fire to the house will be pressed against her. Mrs. Corcoran will have to answer the charge of keeping a disorderly house.

Beginning July I the Annoying Double Fare Will Be a Thing of the Past.

The Scranton Traction company has posted a notice in the dispatcher's office, that beginning with July 1, the conductors will collect fare on the South Side line to the city limits, instead of as heretofore to the South Side car barn, and from the city limits to Greenwood. This action was taken after a consultation between the city solicitor and Jessup and Hand counsels for the Traction company, When the order takes effect, it means that the Scranton Traction company is placed the costs on the county. In the case of Mrs. Sarah Collins, charged with and it is to be explained in this manner. The original company to whom the charter was given, was the Scran-ton Passenger Railway company, and in its charter and franchise there was no provisions made for transfers of any character. The line of this company ceases at what is now known as the Car Barn; from the car barn to the city line it is owned and controlled by the Valley Passenger Railway com-pany, and from that line to the terminus is the property owned by the Scranton and Pittston Railway com-pany. The Scranton Traction company has leased from the other three companies their properties, and each company holds the Scranton Traction company responsible for a certain amount of income. In extending this fare to the city line it means that the Scranton Traction company out of its receipts col-lected through the city of Scranton, must pay the Valley Passenger railway company its proportion of earnings over the line from the car barn to the city limits. In other words, a loss account on transportation is caused by this action, but the present management of the Scranton Traction company is desirious of giving every facility to the public, who are its patrons,

General Manager Beetem stated to a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday there was no compulsion provided toward making the Traction company comply with the action about to go into effect.

The desire of the present management is to please its patrons, even at a sacrifice. The work of repairing the tracks is proceeding very satisfactorily, and before the summer is over they will be put in first-class shape.
